EDWARD SOUTHWORTH'S MARRIAGE RECORD

THE MAYFLOWER DESCENDANT

Vol. X JANUARY, 1908 No. 1

THE MARRIAGE OF EDWARD SOUTHWORTH AND ALICE CARPENTER

With notes by THE EDITOR

THROUGH the coöperation of Mr. Morton Dexter, and at the expense of the Massachusetts Society's Foreign Research Fund, we have secured a photograph of the record at Leyden of the marriage of Edward Southworth and Alice Carpenter, which is reproduced in the accompanying illustration. This marriage is entered in Echt Book B., folio 21, verso, of the Leyden records and is the first entry on the page.

From the literal copy here given it will be seen that the intention of marriage was entered on 4 May, 1613, which was on Saturday, that the banns were published on the three succeeding Saturdays, and that the marriage took place on Tuesday, 28 May, 1613.

The use of the terms "Jongman" and "Jonge Dochter" in the record of the intention proves that this was the first marriage of both bride and groom, therefore the description of the witness Samuel Fuller as "zyn zwager" demands special notice.

According to Henry Hexam's English-Dutch and Dutch-English Dictionary, published in 1658 and 1660, the word "zwager" meant either father-in-law, son-in-law or brother-in-law, as we use these terms at the present time. Unless, therefore, the use of the word "zwager" in 1658 was not the same as in 1613 it is important to determine why Samuel Fuller was called the "zwager" of Edward Southworth. Unless the recording officer made an error, Samuel Fuller was either the father-in-law, the son-in-law or the brother-in-law of Edward Southworth on 4 May, 1613. The record plainly states that this was Edward Southworth's first marriage, therefore the relationship must have been that of brother-in-law and could only have arisen through a marriage of Samuel Fuller.

On 24 April, 1613, Samuel Fuller was married to Agnes Carpenter [ante, VIII, 129] and was called in the record of his intention the "widower of Alice Glascock." Edward Southworth was one of the witnesses and was called his "acquaintance" and not "his brother-in-law."

The most probable explanation of these conflicting statements is that the recording officer, in entering Edward Southworth's intention of marriage, omitted the word "toecomend" before "zwager," which would have made the record read "zyn toecomend zwager"—"his future brother-in-law." As Samuel Fuller had married Alice Carpenter's sister Agnes only ten days before this record was made, this designation would have been correct.

THE WILLS OF SAMUEL HINCKLEY AND HIS WIDOW HANNAH (POPE) (HINCKLEY) HUCKINS

Transcribed from the Original Records,

BY GEORGE ERNEST BOWMAN

SAMUEL HINCKLEY, the son of Governor Thomas Hinckley, married on 13 November, 1676, Sarah the daughter of Thomas Pope. Samuel Hinckley died "y^e^ 19 of March 1697" and his son Elnathan was born "29 Decem 1698", according to the Barnstable town records [ante, VI : 98]. He made his will on 12 March, 1696/7, his inventory was taken on 2 April, 1697, and the will was probated on 7 April, 1697, as shown by the copies here presented, therefore the date of his death must have been recorded in new style, and the date of Elnathan's birth must have been an error of the recording clerk.

Thomas Huckins and the widow Sarah Hinckley were married on 17 August, 1698 [ante, VI : 139], and Thomas died intestate before 5 October, 1714, when his inventory was taken. On 15 October, 1714, his son John Huckins was appointed administrator and, with the widow Sarah, presented the inventory at the probate court. [Barnstable Co. Prob. Rcds., III : 159, 162.]

The widow Sarah Huckins died at Harwich, between 5 January, 1726/7, the date of her will, and 5 July, 1727, the day it was probated. Her will and her first husband's will and inventory are found in the Barnstable County Probate Records, the proper references being stated with the copies which follow.

COOKE NOTES

By the Editor

Under the general title of "Cooke Notes" we shall print, from time to time, abstracts from the numerous notes made by the Editor, from original records and documents, relating to the descendants of Francis Cooke. The notes printed in this series will be selected with especial reference to their importance in establishing lines of descent from Francis Cooke.

The following abstracts from the Plymouth Colony Records of Deeds cover conveyances from John[2] Cooke (Francis[1]) of Dartmouth to his sons-in-law Thomas Taber, Philip Taber, Daniel Wilcocks and Arthur Hathaway. Another son-in-law, Stephen West, is mentioned in John[2] Cooke's will printed in our third volume.

On 17 July, 1673, John[2] Cooke conveyed land to Philip and Mary Taber, and the deed was recorded in Volume III, pages 324 and 325. The deed was found to be defective and an additional deed was made, both the old and the new deeds being recorded on page 339 of the same volume. In the first recording of the old deed a portion was omitted. In re-recording, this error was not made.

[John[2] Cooke to Thomas Taber]

[Plym. Col. Deeds, V : 467] On 21 May, 1672, John Cooke, yeoman, of Dartmouth, his wife Sarah relinquishing her rights, "in Consideration of the Love and affection I bear unto my Loving Son in Law Thomas Tabor" of Dartmouth, mason, conveyed to Tabor "one third part of one whole Share of upland And the fourth part of a whole share of meadow Lands" in Dartmouth, also "a third part of meadow land that doth belong to me the aforesaid John Cooke with the Rest of the freemen as will appear upon Record."

This deed was acknowledged by John and Sarah Cooke before Thomas Hinckley, Assistant, and was witnessed by John Tomson and Daniel Wilcox, the latter signing by a mark. It was recorded 22 January, 1691/2, by Samuel Sprague, Recorder.

[John[2] Cooke to Daniel Wilcocks]

[Plym. Col. Deeds, III : 325] On 17 July, 1673, John Cooke, yeoman, of Dartmouth, in consideration of love and affection conveyed to Daniel Wilcocks, yeoman, of Dartmouth "and Elizabeth my Daughter now wife to the said Daniell Wilcockes," one-fourth of a whole share of lands and meadows, divided and undivided, in Dartmouth, also "my two shares of land in Punckateesett."

The deed was witnessed by Thomas Taber and William Palmer, and was acknowledged before James Brown, Assistant.

[John[2] Cooke to Philip Taber]

[Plym. Col. Deeds, III : 339] On 17 July, 1673, John Cooke, yeoman, of Dartmouth in Plymouth Colony, "in Consideration of the love and affection I beare unto my soninlaw Phillip Tabor" mason, of Dartmouth, conveys to "Phillip Tabor and Mary my Daughter now wife to the said Phillip Tabor" a parcel of land in Dartmouth containing fifty acres, with all the meadow land belonging to it, also "the full Right propriety and Interest of one fourth p^te^ of a whole share of lands and meddowes undevided within said Township"

[John[2] Cooke to Philip Taber]

[Plym. Col. Deeds, III : 339] "whereas I John Cooke . . . . . have formerly Given a deed of Gift bearing date y^e^ 17^th^ of july 1673 unto my Son in law Phillip Tabor late of Sd Dartmouth deceased . . . . . and whereas" the number of acres of meadow to belong to said Philip is not fully expressed in said deed, he declares that eighteen acres of meadow shall belong to the land expressed in said deed. Also whereas ten acres of upland more than expressed in the deed has been laid out and recorded to said Philip, John Cooke freely confirms said ten acres "unto y^e^ heirs of the said Phillip Tabor . . . . The said ten acres of upland Recorded unto y^e^ sd Phillip Tabor in the Purchasers Book of Records"

This deed was dated 27 February, 1692/3, and acknowledged the same day before Seth Pope, justice of the peace.

It was witnessed by John Pope and Thomas Taber, and was recorded 19 May, 1693, by Samuel Sprague, Recorder.

[John[2] Cooke to Arthur Hathaway]

[Plym. Col. Deeds V : 12] On 26 June, 1674, John Cooke of Dartmouth, "for the Naturall love and affection I beare unto Sarah hatheway my Naturall Daughter, and unto Arthur hatheway her husband" conveyed to Arthur Hatheway "all my Right . . . . . into the within or above mensioned p'sents, and all the lands Contained therin;"

Witnessed by Daniel Wilcocks, who made his mark, and Jonathan Shaw. Acknowledged before Thomas Hinckley, Assistant.

The foregoing was endorsed on a deed from Edward Gray, yeoman, of Plymouth, to John Cooke, yeoman, of Dartmouth, dated 24 March, 1670, conveying for £30 sterling, Gray's "one halfe Share lott or portion of land . . . . . upland and meddow Devided and undevided, excepting one house Lott and two acrees of Meddow formerly Given and Graunted unto Benjamin Eaton; Lying and being in or about the Towne of Dartmouth;" Said half share is half of a whole share of a tract of land granted by the court unto Francis Eaton, formerly of Plymouth, deceased, "as a purchaser or or oldcomer of this Collonie," which tract, "Now Called by the name of the Towne of Dartmouth was bought . . . . . from the Indian Sachems Called Woosamequin and Wamsutta" by deed of 29 November, 1652.

This deed was acknowledged 24 March, 1670, "by Edward Gray and his wife" before Thomas Prence, Governor. It was witnessed by John Smith and John Waterman.

[John[2] Cooke to Arthur Hathaway]

[Plym. Col. Deeds, VI : 44] On 4 June, 1686, John Cooke, yeoman, of Dartmouth, for "love good will and affection" conveys "to my loving sonne in law Arthur Haddaway," of Dartmouth, "All that my Small percell or Little neck of land" in Dartmouth, being about three acres, near the lands of John Hayward, Sr., and butting on Acushnet River, and bounded on one side by lands of said Hayward; Also a way to said land as it has been made use of for some time and was formerly given to Samuel Cuthbert by the Company's agents and later allowed by the Company; as may appear by the court records.

The deed was acknowledged the same day before John Thacher, Assistant. It was witnessed by Nathaniel Clarke and William Bassett.

GRAVESTONE RECORDS FROM THE WINSLOW CEMETERY AT MARSHFIELD, MASS.

Communicated by JOHN W. WILLARD

IN April, 1907, the writer, with the assistance of Messrs. Stanley W. Smith, Edward H. Whorf, Arthur E. Linnell and Arthur M. Jones, made a literal copy of every inscription dated prior to 1851, with a few of later date, then to be found in the Winslow Cemetery at Marshfield, Mass. In order that there might be no opportunity for errors in copying to escape notice, the work of each member of the party was checked by other members, and on a second trip to the cemetery, in the same month, an entirely independent set of copies of these inscriptions was made and verified, and then compared with the work done on the first trip. These perfected copies were presented to the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants, and all the genealogical facts contained in the inscriptions will be found in the following abstracts.

A comparison of the abstracts here presented with the copies of these inscriptions printed in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register * for October, 1850, by Miss Marcia A. Thomas, of Marshfield, discloses a large number of errors in her copies. Disregarding entirely the unimportant mistakes — those which do not change a name, a statement of relationship, a date of death or an age at death — there remain nearly fifty errors of varying importance; and several inscriptions then more than a century old were omitted. At the present time three inscriptions mentioned in Miss Thomas' copies cannot be found.

CHILTON-WINSLOW NOTES

By the Editor

Under the general title "Chilton-Winslow Notes" we shall print, from time to time, selections from the numerous notes made by the Editor, from original records and documents, relating to descendants of Mary[2] Chilton (James[1]). The notes printed will be chosen with especial reference to their value in establishing lines of descent from James[1] Chilton of the Mayflower. We have already printed, in our first and third volumes respectively, the wills of Mary (Chilton) Winslow and her husband John Winslow.

The notes printed at this time include an abstract of every original paper or record relating to the settlement of any Winslow estate, prior to 1745, found in the Suffolk County, Mass., probate records and files at Boston.

[Joseph Winslow, 1679]

[Suff. Prob. Rcds., 12 : 321] On 3 October, 1679, administration of the estate of Joseph Winslow, mariner, of Boston was granted "unto his Brother John . Winslow and Cap^{tn} Elisha Hutchinson . in right of the Relict, Widdow, and Children . of the s^{d} Joseph"

[Suff. Prob. Rcds., 12 : 326] On 6 November, 1679, Capt. Elisha Hutchinson and John Winslow, as administrators, present an inventory, and state that they hear report of some debts he owes. The only item in the inventory is the sum of £40 15s., received from Capt. Richard Salter.

[Suff. Prob. Files] The only original paper remaining in the files is the bond of the administrators, for £100, dated 7 October, 1679, with Richard Middlecott as surety.

[Samuel Winslow, 1680]

[Suff. Prob. Rcds., 6 : 347, 348] The will of Samuel Winslow, mariner, of Boston was dated 7 October, 1680, and proved 26 January, 1680. He gives to wife Hannah the use of his whole estate until his son Richard is twenty-one. To son Richard "my now dwelling house Scittuate in Boston with all the land belonging to the same" when he is twenty-one. To daughter Mary Winslow "all my one full Share of land at Shawaumett" in Plymouth Colony, when she is eighteen. If either of said children dies a minor or unmarried that one's share goes to the survivor. To wife Hannah, the remainder of both real and personal estate to dispose of as she pleases, "Reserving always one halfe part to be distributed amongst my owne Children"

Wife Hannah to be sole executrix and "my Loving brother in Law Richard Middlecott of Boston aforesaid Merchant, and my Loving Brother in Law John Briggs of Scittuate" to be overseers. The witnesses were James Inglis and John Hayward.

[Suff. Prob. Rcds., 9 : 32] The inventory, taken 5 November, 1680, by Richard Collacot and Nathaniel Greenwood, was sworn to by Hannah Winslow, executrix, on 26 January, 1680. It included mariners' instruments, a house and land, tobacco in Virginia, "a peice of Land at Seaconet in Plimouth Col°"

There are no original papers, in the files, relating to this estate.

[Edward Winslow, 1682]

[Suff. Prob. Files] The only original paper, remaining in the files, relating to the estate of Edward Winslow, mariner, of Boston is his will, dated 8 November, 1680, and proved 1 February, 1682. The will is also entered in Volume VI, page 418, of the records. He gives to wife Elizabeth the use of his whole estate, while his widow, for her maintenance and to bring up his children. But if she marries again "then my whole Estate, (both that Estate w^{ch} I had wth my Wife and all my other Estate w^{t}ever) be divided and y^{t} my wife shall have one full third" for life, the other two-thirds being equally divided among his children, his sons John and Edward each to have a double portion, the children's portions to be paid them when they are of age or marry; and the widow's thirds, at her death, to be divided among his children in the same proportion.

Wife Elizabeth to be sole executrix and friends John Joyliffe and Isaac Addington, both of Boston, to be overseers. The witnesses were Richard Woodde, Thomas Downe and Nathaniel Barnes.

[Suff. Prob. Rcds., 9 : 115] The inventory, taken 19 January, 1682, by Capt. Thomas Brattle and John Poole, was sworn to by Elizabeth Winslow, executrix, on 1 February, 1682. It included "Land at Rhode Island," "A dwelling house in Boston standing upon Land given by Cap^{ne} Hutchinson to m^{rs}

CAPT. EDWARD CHURCH'S WIFE MARTHA THE DAUGHTER OF STEPHEN BURTON

By George Ernest Bowman

The abstracts from original records presented in the following notes prove that Martha, the wife of Capt. Edward Church of Bristol * was the daughter of Stephen and Abigail Burton of that town, and not the daughter of William[2] Brenton of Newport.

Stephen Burton's first wife was Abigail[2] Brenton, daughter of Gov. William[1] and sister of the William[2] just mentioned and of Jahleel[2] Brenton of Newport. Stephen Burton married, second, on 4 September, 1684,† Elizabeth the daughter of Gov. Josiah and Penelope Winslow of Marshfield.

As Martha the widow of Capt. Edward Church died 14 April, 1750, in her seventy-third year, according to her gravestone at Newport, she was born about 1677 or 1678 and must have been a daughter of Stephen Burton's first wife. It is possible that the age stated on the gravestone is too great and that Martha was the nameless daughter whose birth was recorded at Boston as "Daughter of Stephen Burton and Abigail his Wife born 16 October 1680" * Since Jahleel[2] Brenton calls Martha his niece, in the deed of gift here quoted, she could not have been a daughter of Stephen Burton's second wife, Elizabeth Winslow.

* At that time a part of Massachusetts, but in 1747 annexed to Rhode Island.

† Ante, II : 183.

The two deeds made in 1715 show clearly that Thomas Burton of Duxbury had received a double portion, in this case one-half, of his father's estate, and his own sister Elizabeth Burton and his half sister Martha (Burton) Church had received each one-fourth. In the two deeds made in 1728 we see the same division of Stephen Burton's Dunstable land. The remaining abstracts prove that the Martha Church of the preceding deeds was the widow of Capt. Edward Church and the mother of Benjamin Church, of Newport and Boston, and of Abigail the wife of George Wanton of Newport.

[There are also a number of deeds on the Middlesex County records by which Martha Church disposed of portions of this gift of land.]

[MARTHA CHURCH TO BENJAMIN CHURCH]

[Middlesex Co. Deeds, 44 : 287] On 5 September, 1743, Martha Church, widow, of Newport, R. I., gave power of attorney to her "Son Benjamin Church of Boston . . . . . Gen[t]" to recover on a mortgage given by purchasers of her lands at Dunstable.

JAN TELLIJ'S MARRIAGE RECORD

THE MAYFLOWER DESCENDANT

Vol. X APRIL, 1908 No. 2

"JAN TELLIJ" OF LEYDEN WAS NOT JOHN TILLEY OF THE MAYFLOWER

By George Ernest Bowman

The accompanying illustration presents the record of the betrothal at Leyden, on 13 February, 1615, of "Jan Tellij" and "Prijntgen Van den Velde." This record is found in the "Kerkelicke Huwelycke Proclamatie Boeck," folio 48 verso, with other betrothals of the same date. The marriage took place on 3 March, 1615.

The betrothal record reads as follows:

[The Dutch Record]

Jan Tellij Saeywercker Jongman van Leyden vergeselschapt met Paulus Telly zyn vader met

Prijntgen Van den Velde Jonge dochter mede van Leijden vergeselschapt met Maeychen Tay haer moeder

[The English Translation]

John Telly, say weaver, single man, of Leyden, accompanied by Paul Telly his father, with

Pryntgen Van den Velde, single woman, also of Leyden, accompanied by Maeychen Tay her mother.

The use of the terms "Jongman," meaning single man, or bachelor, and "Jonge dochter," meaning single woman, proves that neither "Jan Tellij" nor "Prijntgen Van den Velde" had ever been married before.

Elizabeth Tilley came in the Mayflower with her father,

John Tilley, and later married John Howland. The date of her marriage is unknown, but her son John[2] Howland, born 24 February, 1626/7,* and her daughter Desire[2] Howland, whose birth date is unknown, were both living on 22 May, 1627.† Unless these children were twins, which seems unlikely from the meager data obtainable, Desire[2] must have been born as early as February, 1625/6. Whether or not they were twins, it is certain that on 24 February, 1626/7, Elizabeth (Tilley) Howland was the mother of two children. In her will, dated 17 December, 1686, she called herself "Seventy nine yeares of Age but of good & perfect memory,"‡ thus fixing her own birth date as about 1607, or 1608. As the statement of the will is supported by the known facts regarding her children, and nothing has been found which casts any doubt upon it, we must accept it as correct. But even if we did not have the statement of the will by which to fix the age of Elizabeth Tilley, it is evident that she must have been born before 3 March, 1615, otherwise she would have become the mother of two children before she was twelve years of age. Since Elizabeth (Tilley) Howland was born before 3 March, 1615, she could not have been a daughter either of "Jan Tellij" or of "Prijntgen Van den Velde" who were married on that date, neither having been married before.

The only known contemporary references to the parentage of Elizabeth (Tilley) Howland are found in Bradford's History. In the list of the Mayflower Passengers he mentions her three times, as follows:

"John Tillie, and his wife; and Eelizabeth their doughter"

"John Howland maried the doughter of John Tillie, Elizabeth, and they are both now living;"

"John Tillie, and his wife both dyed, a little after they came ashore; and their daughter Elizabeth maried with John Howland" §

These statements were written by Governor Bradford while John Howland and his wife were still living in Plymouth, where all three had lived for more than thirty years, and Bradford must then have had his own manuscript "register . . . . . recording some of the first deaths, marriages and punishments," which Rev. Thomas Prince obtained from the Governor's grandson, Major John Bradford, and referred to so frequently in his New England Chronology, published in 1736. Governor Bradford was in a position to know the facts. Therefore, as no evidence has yet been produced to controvert his statements, we must accept them as they have come down to us in his own handwriting.

* Sewall's Diary. † Ante, I: 150. ‡ Ante, III: 54.

§ Ante, I: 10, 11, 14.

It has been shown that Elizabeth (Tilley) Howland was not the daughter of "Jan Tellij," the Leyden bridegroom of 1615; and on the other hand it has been shown that she was the daughter of John Tilley of the Mayflower. It is evident, therefore, that "Jan Tellij" and John Tilley were not identical, but were two entirely distinct individuals.

The account is signed by "Elizabeth Willard lait Walley" and was sworn to by her on 31 July, 1702. The inventory and account are also found in the records, 15 : 56.

[Simon Willard]

After debts and funeral expenses are paid he gives the "Remainder of my Estate both Real and personal . . . . unto my welbeloved Wife Elizabeth Willard . . . . to be at her Disposal forever Excepting only my timber Messuage or Tenement Scituate near the Town Dock in Boston with the Lands . . . . thereto belonging, the reversion whereof at my Wifes Decease I Give . . . . unto my three Children Namely Samuel Abigail and Katherine Willard . . . . part and part alike and if any of them happen to dye before they Come to the possession thereof the Survivours to take . . . . the whole in like manner Entirely Confiding in the tender Affection and Motherly Care of my said Wife for the Support and good Education of my said Dear Children" Wife Elizabeth to be sole executrix. THE SETTLEMENT OF THE ESTATE OF DEACON BENJAMIN CHURCH OF BOSTON

(Concluded from Vol. VIII, p. 58)

THE only record of the death of Deacon Benjamin Church we have been able to find is contained in the following item from the issue for Thursday, 11 October, 1781, of "The Continental Journal and Weekly Advertiser," which was published in Boston.

"Died Yesterday afternoon, Deacon Benjamin Church, of this town: His Funeral proceeds To-Morrow afternoon, at half past Three, when his friends and acquaintance are desired to attend."

The letter of administration issued to his widow, dated 17 October, 1781, is recorded in Book 80, page 568.

Attached to the original inventory is a list of over two hundred books in English, Latin, Greek, Hebrew and French. This list was not recorded.

The first account of the executrix is dated 6 August, 1782. The first item bears date 11 October, 1781. The only persons mentioned are as follows: "Paid Sarah Curtis 4 days attendance & helping Lay out the deceased"; "paid Caty Wyer assist^{g} d^{o}"; "Paid Lydia Bixby 5 weeks nurs^{g} the deceased"; "paid Doct^{r} Warrens Bill"; "paid Doct^{r} Lloyds Bill" [The original account is still on file. It is also recorded, 81 : 375.]

On 6 August, 1782, John Winniet, Jacob Wendell and Jacob Cooper were appointed commissioners to examine claims against the estate of "Benjamin Church late of Boston in said County Auctioneer deceased" represented insolvent. The original warrant is attached to the report of the commissioners, still in the files. The report, which is not dated, calls Benjamin Church a "Merchant" and finds the estate indebted to "the late Comp^{y} of Stephen & W^{m} Greenleaf"; Henry Johnson; "To Benjamin & John Bowers of Manchester for ballance of a Note of Hand payable to Ed. Church or order by him indorsed over to William Pollard or order"; Estate of Charles Apthorp, deceased; David Jeffries, Trustee for the creditors of Gamaliel Wallis; Edward Giles, painter; James Cunningham; James & William Cunningham; John McLane; Doctor James Lloyd; "James Thompson on Obligation with Nutting &c"; Estate of Dr. John Stedman. [The warrant and report are also on record, 82 : 267, 268.]

In the files we find also "A List of Debts . . . . of Benjamin Church late of Boston Gentleman," endorsed "nt to be recorded," which was presented by Hannah Church, executrix. It is not dated, but was made up on or after 11 August, 1782. The creditors named are: "Thomas Lee on Note dated May 1 . 1771 . "; "the late Company of Stephen & Wm Greenleaf"; Henry Johnson; James Thompson on bond and interest to 11 August, 1782; Edward Giles; Estate of Charles Ward Apthorp; Doctor James Lloyd; John McLane. Attached to this list is a bill presented 21 December, 1782, by Ebenezer Stedman, administrator on the estate of Dr. John Stedman, for dressing Deacon Church's head on 14, 16, 18, and 21 October, 1776, and prescription on 27 and 28 of same month.

The second account of the executrix, dated 8 April, 1783, mentions receipts from Samuel Cookson, Joseph Payson, and Abijah Hammond; also payments to "Perez Morton for Costs Execution vs Foster." [This is also recorded, 82 : 266.]

On 8 April, 1783, as the report of the commissioners showed claims of £1154 11s. 5d., and the balance in the hands of the executrix was but £129 3s. 7½d., the executrix was ordered to pay the creditors at the rate of 2s. 2¾d. on the pound, "saving to each of the Creditors a proportion of such Other Estate as Shall hereafter Appear, upon any further Account to be rendred thereof" [This order is recorded, 82 : 269.]

Deacon Benjamin Church's widow Hannah, who had been executrix of his will, died in March or April, 1794, without having completed the settlement of his estate. Her will was made 16 March and proved 15 April, 1794. In it she mentioned Sally, eldest daughter of son Dr. Benjamin Church deceased; daughter Hannah Weld; daughter Alice Fleming; daughter Abigail Phillips; James and Hannah, children of son Dr. Benjamin Church deceased; Anna, Elizabeth, Maria, Edward, Sally and Fanny, children of son Edward Church, Esq.; Elizabeth, daughter of son Dr. Giles Church deceased; Samuel and John Waldo sons of daughter Mary Cookson deceased; and she made her two sons-in-law, Samuel Cookson and Turner Phillips, and her friend Allen Crocker, executors. [Suffolk Co. Prob. Records, 93 : 217.]

On 13 May, 1794, Turner Phillips and Abigail his wife and Samuel Cookson, all of Boston, were cited to appear at the probate office on 20 May, 1794, to show cause, if any, why letters of administration de bonis non should not be granted to Edward Weld, on the estate of Benjamin Church. Attached to the foregoing is the administrator's bond of Edward Weld, shopkeeper, with Benjamin Weld, gentleman, and Ebenezer T. Andrews, printer, as sureties. Neither paper is recorded.

On 27 May, 1794, Edward Weld was ordered to advertise his appointment as administrator de bonis non in Adams and Larkins' Independent Chronicle. On 22 November, 1796, he made oath that he had done so on 4 September, 1794. [Original papers, and 94 : 596]

On 27 May, 1794, Hon. Thomas Dawes, Samuel Ruggles and Mr. Thomas Bayley, all of Boston, were appointed to appraise the estate. On the back of the warrant is the appraisal, dated 12 September, 1794, of "all the Real Estate whereof Benj[a] Church died seized and possessed Consisting Of One Large Brick House & land in Newbury Street in Boston" valued at £1300. Attached to the foregoing is a bill, dated 12 September, 1794, of Edward Weld, as administrator, against the estate of Hannah Church, deceased, "For the Improvment* of a Large Dubble Brick House in Newbury Street, the Estate of the Late Benj[n] Church for twelve years and Nine months at Eighty pounds pr year" [Original papers, also 93 : 420, 421.]

On 17 June, 1794, George Blake, attorney for Samuel Cookson and Turner Phillips who had objected to the appointment of Edward Weld as administrator de bonis non on 27 May, 1794, and appealed to the Supreme Court of Probate, filed the reasons for appealing, viz.: Because by the will of Hannah Church said estate belongs to the infant children of Samuel Cookson and the wife of Turner Phillips, and because Samuel Cookson and Turner Phillips are heirs in equal degree with Edward Weld. With the foregoing paper is the bond of same date by which Samuel Cookson, gentleman, and Turner Phillips, gentleman, as principals, with Joseph Crocker, gentleman, and Isaac Phillips, mariner, as sureties, are held to prosecute the appeal and pay all charges taxed by the court. [Unrecorded original papers.]

On 1 September, 1795, Edward Weld, gentleman, having obtained as administrator de bonis non, authority from the Supreme Court of Probate to sell the real estate, filed a bond for £3000, with Benjamin Weld, merchant, and Ebenezer T.

* "Improvement of" frequently meant "use of."

Andrews, printer, both of Boston, as sureties. The bond, also the original oath of Edward Weld, dated 2 September, 1795, to do his best in selling the estate, are still in the files. There is no record of either.

Under date of 24 May, 1796, Samuel Cookson, trader, of Roxbury, and Turner Phillips, gentleman, of Boston were cited to appear, if they see cause, at a probate court to be held at Boston on 31 May and present any objections they may have to allowing the account of Edward Weld, administrator de bonis non. Endorsements on the back of the summons show that it was served on Cookson on 26 May, and on Phillips on 30 May, 1796.

The summons is attached to an account of Edward Weld as administrator de bonis non of "Benj[a] Church Senior late of Boston Gentleman dec[d]." The account is dated 11 October, 1796. In October, 1795, he had received £1900 from the sale of the brick house and land in Newbury St., Boston; and £19 10s. for rent from John Dorr. Payments had been made to Ambrose Vincent, Caleb Davis, Esq., Adams & Larkin, and for various court expenses. The creditors named in the report of the commissioners are all paid, with interest for twelve and one-half years. At this date the creditors were named as follows: William Greenleaf; Benjamin & John Bowers, in England; Charles Ward Apthorp of New York; Henry Johnson; Estate of David Jeffries, Esq.; James & William Cunningham; Estate of James Cunningham; Dr. James Lloyd; Dr. John Stedman; James Thompson; John McLane; Edward Giles. A payment is also made to Mary Williams. The account was allowed by the probate court on 22 November, 1796.

Following the account is an unsigned and undated memorandum of legacies left by the will of Benjamin Church. Above it is written "Hereunder Not to be Recorded" The children and grandchildren are named as in the will, except that "little Betsy," daughter of son Giles, is called Elizabeth, and by mistake the daughter Alice Fleming is called "Elizabeth." As John Fleming's wife is called "Alice" both in the will of her father and in the will of her mother, there can be no doubt that "Elizabeth" is an error. Interest for thirteen years was calculated on all these legacies, but there is nothing to show that any of them were paid. [The administrator's account is also recorded, 94 : 593.]

RECORDS OF THE FIRST CHURCH IN ORLEANS, FORMERLY THE FIRST CHURCH IN EASTHAM, MASS.

Communicated by STANLEY W. SMITH

EARLY in 1907 the oldest book now known of the records of the First Church in Orleans, Mass., was copied at the expense of Messrs. John W. Willard, Arthur E. Linnell and the writer, and the copy was presented to the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants. This Church is in the part of Eastham which was incorporated, in 1797, as the Town of Orleans. We have been unable to find any trace of the earlier records referred to on the first page, on which are the following entries:

"Records of the first Chh In Eastham 1772"

"N.B. For former Records, See the other Book of Records."

Page 2 is blank and page 3, in addition to an index of subjects entered in the book, bears the following inscription:

"Records of the first Chh In Eastham, begun Oct^{r} A D. 1772 ^{w} Jonathan Bascom who was ordained pastor of S^{d} Chh, Oct^{r} 14th 1772.

N.B. For former records, See the other Books."

"Records of the Church in Orleans Kept by Daniel Johnson who was ordained May the 11–1808."

In this first article we give the list of church members on 2 May, 1774.

[p. 43] A List of the surviving members of y^{e} first Chh in Eastham, taken, by a Committee chosen for that purpose, May 2^{d} A.D. 1774 ——

Joseph, died 11 July, 1763, aged 84 years, "wanting 20 days."

* All but the first letter of the surname is broken off from this stone, also the last two figures of the year. Andrew Samson, son of Miles and Sarah, was born 28 September, 1714 [Ante 9: 230]; his will was made 5 November, 1785, and it was proved 4 December, 1786. [Plym. Co. Prob. Rcds., 30: 40, 41.] Winsor's History of Duxbury, published in 1849, says on page 302 that this Andrew died "Sep. 6, 1776, aet. nearly 72," the age given clearly proving the year to be an error for 1786. Vinton's Giles Memorial, published in 1864, says on page 403 that this Andrew died "Sept. 6, 1786, ae. 72." The portion broken off from the stone was too narrow for the name to have been Southworth, and it seems to be clear that this is the stone of Andrew Samson. — EDITOR.

RECORDS OF THE FIRST CHURCH OF SCITUATE, MASS.

In this issue we give about one-half of the baptisms by Rev. Nathaniel Pitcher. The dates of these baptisms were entered in columns, headed "Day. Mo: yeare," or other abbreviation or spelling. In every case the day of the month is given in the first column, and the number of the month in the second column, therefore it has seemed unwise to increase the space required, and the expense of composition, by printing in table form, and in the following pages the day, month and year are separated by periods instead of being placed in ruled vertical columns.

[Rev. N. Pitcher's Baptisms]

RECORDS FROM THE DUCK CREEK CEMETERY, WELLFLEET, MASS.

Communicated by STANLEY W. SMITH

IN July, 1905, with the assistance of Mr. John W. Willard, the writer made copies of all inscriptions dated prior to 1851, with a few of later date, found in the Duck Creek Cemetery in Wellfleet, Mass., on the road to the village of South Wellfleet. We are indebted to Mr. Arthur H. Rogers, Town Clerk of Wellfleet, for a partial copy of these inscriptions, which we have verified by the stones themselves. In September, 1907, the cemetery was again visited, and all the copies were carefully compared with the stones by Messrs. John W. Willard, Edward H. Whorf and the writer.
